EVACUATION ALERT - Information

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO during the Evacuation Alert Stage:

- Register for the Evacuation Notification System at www.rdek.bc.ca – this will ensure that we can reach you rapidly if the evacuation status changes.
- Arrange a meeting location outside of the Evacuation Alert area where family members can meet if an Evacuation Order is issued while not together.
- Have a ‘To-Go Bag’ packed and ready to leave at a moment’s notice, with essential items such as:
 - Government-issued ID
 - Medications, eyeglasses, and transportable medical equipment
 - Money
 - Clothing, personal care items and immediate needs for your dependents
 - Important documents (e.g. insurance, banking and mortgage info)
 - Valuables and keepsakes
- Pets: Please prepare to take your pets with you, include:
 - Food and water
 - Carriers or travel trailers
 - Medication
 - Anything necessary for the animal’s safe and well-being
- Relocate recreational vehicles and boats at the Alert stage as there will not be time to move them in the event of an Order.
- Ensure there is enough fuel in vehicles to safely leave the area if an Evacuation Order is issued.
- Plan ahead for accommodation should an Order need to be issued, if possible, stay with friends or relatives, or find alternative accommodations.
- Should an Evacuation Order need to be issued, provincial Emergency Support Services are only available for those displaced from their primary residence.
- Pre-register all household members on the provincial Evacuee Registration & Assistance (ERA) Tool at ess.gov.bc.ca. Persons who have a BC Services Card may be eligible to receive an e-transfer using the BC Services Card App.
- Monitor credible news sources and www.rdek.bc.ca for information.
